A fresh egg is an essential part of a proper breakfast, especially in Germany. The same goes for Sunday brunch, when friends and family are all sitting at the table. Some like their eggs soft-boiled, other harder – everyone has different tastes. Konstantin Grcic designed the attractive eggcups Belle so that everyone's wishes are respected and above all that eggs do not get mixed up. The glazed tip of the handle is a pure, shiny white, or comes in grey, black, yellow, pink and green.
